

Summit County

Recovery

Housing

Providers

For additional information,
call 330-996-7730
or email SCRH@orianahouse.org

County of Summit

ADM
BOARD

Alcohol, Drug Addiction &
Mental Health Services Board

The County of Summit Alcohol, Drug Addiction and Mental Health (ADM) Services Board provides financial support for local recovery housing that provides a transitional living environment that promotes sobriety and independent living during the early stages of recovery.

The ADM Board contracts with Oriana House to manage referrals, coordinate placement, and authorize payments to participating recovery providers in accordance with ADM Board priorities.

Recovery Housing Eligibility

- Must be adult Summit County residents.
- Must have a suitable period of sobriety (this may vary according to each Recovery Home's individual policy). When the recovery housing census has reached capacity, clients will be considered for placement on a case by case basis.
- Individuals discharged from residential treatment who have no stable housing will be given first priority.
- Must be involved in OHMAS certified agency for alcohol and other drug outpatient level of care and be in need of recovery housing.
- Must follow through with all recommendations for the entirety of their placement with the recovery housing provider.

How to Refer

- The referring agency will complete a Recovery Housing Referral Form, accompanying Releases of Information forms and the Behavior Module.
- Paperwork to be emailed to SCRH@orianahouse.org or faxed to 330-996-7742.

For Additional Information

Call the recovery housing liaison at 330-996-7730 or email SCRH@orianahouse.org.

Female and Male Housing

Frederick Avenue Apartments

Frederick Avenue Apartments include 10 apartments upstairs and nine apartments downstairs. Each apartment has two bedrooms; a full kitchen; is furnished, including a television; and houses two people. The apartment complex is gated and staffed 24/7 by recovery coaches.

- Programming: Weekly structured time involves employment classes, life skills, substance abuse meetings, recreational activities, etc.
- Clients each have their own recovery coach.
- Employment Services: Employment classes are offered.
- Six hours of community service are required monthly.
- Transportation: A van is available for staff to transport clients. A bus stop is nearby.
- Food Services: All clients are responsible for purchasing and preparing their own food.
- Movies, bowling, skating, and other fun activities are planned regularly.
- Curfew is 10 p.m. on weeknights and 12 a.m. on weekends. Visitation is daily from 1-4 p.m. Phones are available for clients and laundry is $1.00 per wash and dry.
- Contacts: Michelle Arnold, 330-996-2222, ext. 2609; michellearnold@orianahouse.org or James Blake, 330-996-2222, ext. 3203; jamesblake@orianahouse.org
- Website: www.orianahouse.org

- Recovery Activities: Participants are transported to five recovery meetings a week. AOD tests are given regularly.
- Programming: Case management, daily living skill training, and recovery coaching are provided on site. Twenty-four hour support and encouragement of participants' recovery efforts.
- Participants with no income must job search. Once income is secured, the participant must save toward the cost of moving into permanent housing.
- Transportation: Monthly bus passes, van, and staff transport are provided.
- Food: Legacy III supplies all meals. Residents are able to purchase their own snacks.
- Other: Free laundry, satellite TV, house phone, group outings to recovery conferences and social events, assistance for toiletries, state IDs, birth certificates. Opportunity to move into a one-bedroom apartment with monthly rental assistance.
- Contact: Antoinette Brown, 330-375-0071, legacyiiiab@sbcglobal.net
- Website: www.legacythree.org

Female Housing

New Journey Freedom House FOR WOMEN

New Journey promotes recovery, change, growth, and fosters accountability and self-sufficiency to help women make positive life changes. Housing includes a furnished single and double bedroom, a bathroom with a shower, fully equipped kitchen, and a furnished living room, cable TV, Internet, laundry and a security system. New Journey is operated by Freedom House for Women.

- Services required and provided at our administration site: case management, daily living skills, anger management, budgeting, Getting Ahead, parent classes, employment services and recovery coaching.
- Substance Abuse Treatment: Attendance of Recovery/12-step meetings required six days per week (adjusted after securing employment). Regular alcohol/drug testing.

- Employment: Each individual must actively seek, obtain and maintain employment.
- Transportation: Bus line two minutes from housing program. Bus passes are issued for the initial 90 days and the bus line is nearby.
- Program Fee: Charged after initial 90 days.
- Residents must establish a savings account.
- Other: Ohio Benefit Bank Site to assist with entitlement programs and referrals for clothing, food, and housing needs.
- Contact: Eva Hartwell, 330-785-9720, cell 330-785-8319, ehartwell.fh4women@att.net
- Website: www.fh4women.org

Male Housing

Truly Reaching You

Truly Reaching You is a 9-12 month program committed to helping men reentering the community from incarceration and/or addiction transition into healthy lifestyles, renewed attitudes, and positive relationships through Christian principles. T.R.Y. provides single bedrooms, along with clothing and health care in a structured, family-oriented environment.

- The program includes accountability, recovery coaching, and spiritual support.
- Requirements: 30-day coping period, two substance abuse meetings and three Bible studies weekly, Sunday worship, community service, and employment/life skill training. Employment skill training includes construction trades, commercial lawn care, commercial cleaning, and warehouse/inventory logistics.
- Employment: Clients must pursue employment after 90 days.
- Money Management: Once employed, T.R.Y. requires and guides clients in money accountability including saving and paying debts.

(continued on back panel)

Female Housing

Legacy III

Legacy III provides transitional and permanent housing to assist women in recovery from alcoholism and/or drug addiction. The facility is centrally located in Akron and is staffed 24 hours a day with qualified, experienced, and caring staff. Participants are provided a safe, decent, drug-free living environment in a shared housing setting. Services are free.

- Transportation provided for Aftercare, program requirements, medical/PO appointments, and grocery shopping. Easy bus access.
- Food: All clients are responsible to help provide food, typically using a food card.
- Other: Laundry, cable TV, phone, and toiletries and cleaning supplies are provided.
- Contacts: Steve Wewer or Perry Clark, 330-785-9294, info@trulyreachingyou.com
- Website: www.trulyreachingyou.com

Male Housing

FI Community Housing

FI Community Housing
Established 1995

FI Community Housing (“FI”), Summit County’s oldest and largest recovery community organization offering many types of recovery support. FI’s Recovery Residences are certified under Ohio Recovery Housing Standards and provide a structured transition from in-patient care to the establishment of a lifestyle that supports long-term sobriety. FI utilizes the “Social Model of Recovery” through faith-based principles and evidence-based practices. Services provided around work schedules. Family-oriented. Staff are alumni of FI, certified Recovery Coaches and/or Certified Ohio Peer Supporters.

- * Relapse Prevention
- * Individualized Wellness Plans
- * Advocacy and Referral
- * Peer-to-Peer Services
- * Spiritual Support/Bible Studies
- * Employment/Vocational Services
- * In-House Recovery Meetings
- * Motivational Workshops
- * Grief Recovery
- * Transportation: Bus stops are outside
- * Bed Arrangements: Shared rooms
- * Food Service: Most food & snacks provided
- * Other: Computer lab, Internet, work-out area, movie theater, cable, free laundry
- Contacts: Erik Larson, 330-459-5904 or Denny Wilson, 888-422-2759, dwilson@ficomcommunityhousing.org
- Website: www.ficomcommunityhousing.org